Hi Mark,

In Bangkok you have to see the Grand Palace, Khao San Road and some of the shopping malls like Siam Paragon. If you are really into shopping visit Chatuchak Market as well.

On Phuket be careful which beach you choose, Patong will be very crowded and commercial, the other beaches will be more quiet. Up to your own preference really.

Why not visit Koh Samui? I personally like it better then Phuket.

Any more questions feel free to ask.

Cheers

Bangkwang is very nice this time of year, so is Klong Prem.

To get to either destination just go to any police officer and say to him "yak suu yaabaa, eye heea." He will be happy to direct you from there :)
